BROTHERLY LOVE

Made a list of all persons we had harmed, and became willing to make amends to them all.

Eighth Step Prayer

Higher Power, I ask your help in making my list of all those I have harmed. I will take responsibility for my mistakes & be forgiving to others as you are forgiving to me. Grant me the willingness.
This I pray.

The camel each day goes twice to his knees.
He picks up his load with the greatest of ease.
He walks through the day
with his head held high.
And stays for that day,
completely dry.

CAMEL PRAYER

The tasks of the day
can pass with ease
when a camel or I start
on our knees.
One Master we serve,
the camel and I,
and stay for that day
completely dry.

We Need Help!!!

My name is Jack W. I am the Corrections Chairman for District 3 which includes Polk, Hardee and Highlands Counties. We are looking for volunteers to go into the jails and state prisons in this district. We especially need help at the men's jail in Polk County which is in Frostproof and the Hardee men's jail in Hardee County, and the state prison in Avon Park.

We know that this kind of service work is not for everyone, but we believe of all the service work, this is one of the most rewarding.

The requirements are; 1 year of sobriety, has worked the 12 steps, can follow the rules set by the institution that you serve and a willingness to serve for at least 2 years. If you have been incarcerated before does not mean you cannot serve in a jail or prison. It depends on your situation. Also, having not been arrested at all does not mean you cannot take a meeting into a jail or prison. I myself have never been arrested. But I bring a meeting into a prison every week.

We are also looking for people to serve on a Corrections Committee. We need a secretary, treasure, and other members to help serve on this important committee.

If you would like to be involved in this important 12th step work please contact me at: corrections@aadistrict3fl.org or call 618-407-9879.

A.A. Oldtimers...On the Eighth Step

A.A. Grapevine, June 1945, Vol. 2 No. 1

Editorial: On the 8th Step . . .

“Made a list of all persons we had harmed, and became willing to make amends to them all.

It was characteristic of many of us as alcoholics to at least attempt to perform in the grandiose manner. And in harming others we usually succeeded magnificently. So, to say that the first phase of the Eighth Step is a large order is to indulge in understatement which matches our bombastic style.

And yet, however extended be the list of those we have harmed, the fulfillment of this step's admonition need not be a tedious nor a burdensome undertaking. In the first place, let's examine the meaning of the verb: Amend.

Webster's New International Dictionary defines it thus –“To make better, especially in character; to repair, restore; to free from faults, put right, correct, rectify. . .”

There is the credo to which we of A.A. subscribe; the goal we hope to achieve through sobriety. It is both the manifestation of our adherence to the other 11 Steps and our performance of the Eighth itself.

The definition continues:

“ . . . to change or modify in any way for the better; to recover from illness.”

It was written for us!

We have often heard that our sobriety should be founded on “unselfish selfishness”, that we should strive to avoid a lapse into drinking for the benefits we, personally, derive from abstinence. It's not sound, we have been told, to try to stay dry for the sake of a wife or a sweetheart or someone else dear to us.

When we first heard that plan of action outlined, we revolted mildly because it didn't seem to meet the specifications of true altruism. Many of us, as we entered A.A., still yearned for that mystic power to “handle” alcohol and it seemed then that the step we were taking was at least in part –a gesture of devotion to some loved one. Without altruism there didn't seem to be much motive to propel us.

Of course, we soon discovered that “unselfish selfishness” was the firmest foundation for our recovery. We found, in the same way, that we try to help others, not solely through altruistic impulse, but so that we may gain strength.

The principle of “unselfish selfishness” is applicable again in the Eighth Step. We seek to identify all those we have harmed and we assume a willingness to make amends so that –recalling the definition of the word –we may “change . . . for the better” and “recover from illness.”

The alternative is retrogression. If we fail to “repair”, we can only impair.

When we sincerely took such a position, all sorts of remarkable things followed. We had a new Employer. Being all powerful, He provided what we needed, if we kept close to Him and performed His work well. Established on such a footing we became less and less interested in ourselves, our little plans and designs. More and more we became interested in seeing what we could contribute to life. As we felt new power flow in, as we enjoyed peace of mind, as we discovered we could face life successfully, as we became conscious of His presence, we began to lose our fear of today, tomorrow or the hereafter. We were reborn.

We were now at Step Three. Many of us said to our Maker, as we understood Him: "God, I offer myself to What is A.A.?

Alcoholics Anonymous is a voluntary, worldwide fellowship of men and women from all walks of life who meet together to share and support sobriety. The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop using. (pg. Three and the back of back to A.A. membership)

Current Membership

A fellowship that today has more than 170,000 groups and over 2,000,000 members in over 100 countries.

Relationship With Outside Agencies

This Fellowship has adopted a policy of "nonpartisanism" and other organizations concerned with the problem of alcoholism. We have no official relationship with A.A. and neither endorse nor oppose any religion.

How A.A. Is Supported

Over the years, Alcoholics Anonymous has achieved and strengthened a reputation of being safe, self-reliant, and of neither seeking nor accepting funds from outside sources. Before the Fellowship, we ask that you be understood by any individual member to be limited to $100.00 a year.
